Nestled in the vibrant heart of Belluno, at the beginning of Via Feltre, stands an authentic treasure trove of history and Liberty-style charm. An atmosphere filled with elegance and tradition envelops this building from the early 20th century, a witness to a fascinating past seamlessly blended with modernity in a complete renovation.

At the threshold of the second floor, accessible with the convenience of an elevator, awaits a 130 sqm apartment—a true real estate gem that strikes a perfect balance between vintage charm and contemporary comfort.

Upon entering, you'll be welcomed by spacious, meticulously renovated interiors. The living area, on the right, unfolds as an invitation to conviviality: a bright kitchen with a dining area leads to a guest bathroom. The living room stands out in a separate room for its spaciousness and double window providing a unique view. You can access the study, a perfect retreat for remote work, or a quiet space for your children to focus on their studies.

The intimate and welcoming sleeping area comprises two spacious bedrooms separated by a hal...
