In the heart of Soraga di Fassa, amidst the majestic Dolomites embracing history and tradition, stands this jewel steeped in the past: this tabià, silent witness to agricultural events starting roughly between 1860 and 1939, is now ready to be transformed into an elegant home that skillfully blends the charm of time with the luxury of modern comforts.

Walking across the threshold of this ground-sky portion, you breathe in the essence of history intertwined with the possibilities of the future. On the ground floor, the old barn with its faces, witness to ancient peasant labors, patiently awaits its transformation. On the second floor, a wide farmyard opens like a welcoming embrace, while on the second floor, a majestic attic preserves the traces of years past. Reaching the third floor, a deck offers an unexplored space, an invitation to shape one's dreams.

It is a unique opportunity, a blank sheet waiting to be painted with your vision. Imagine glazed walls capturing alpine light, alongside ancient stone and wood that tell timeless stories. A hearth, the beating heart of the house, spr...
