Embark on a journey through time as soon as your gaze falls upon this portion of a house in Feder di Canale d'Agordo. It's as if the architecture itself speaks to you, narrating stories of a rich and captivating past. The atmosphere is steeped in history, wrapping around you like a warm blanket on a cold winter day, inviting you to explore every corner with curiosity and admiration.

Outside, the charm of the Dolomites merges with local architectural tradition, creating an iconic image of beauty and authenticity.

On the ground floor, are three spacious rooms, ancient cellars that enclose secrets and mysteries waiting to be discovered. They are independent spaces, ready to embrace new stories and destinies.

Ascending the small external staircase, you find yourself on the first floor, in the pulsating heart of the house. The living area, a bedroom, and a bathroom complete this floor, allowing you to create everything you need to live comfortably in this environment steeped in history and charm. And then there's the "rotonda," an authentic architectural masterpiece that t...
